Yesterday when the Ranterino woke up
He looked in the mirror and saw
His hair was a big ball of fluff!

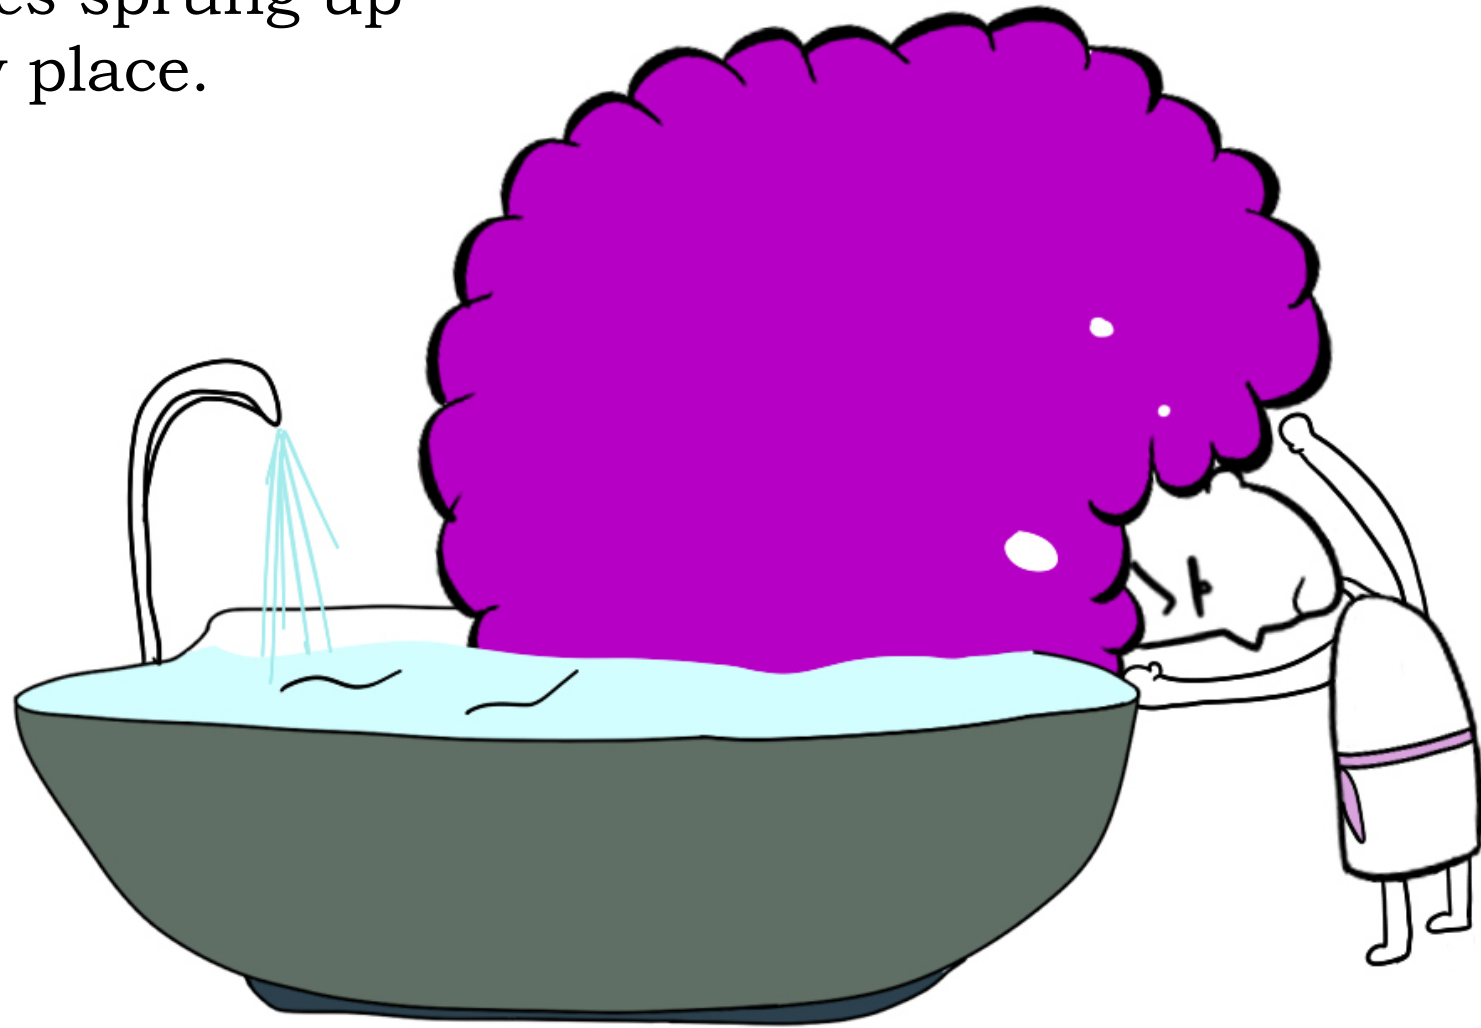

He took a brush and brushed it through
And then tried to pat it down.
But no sooner had he got it down
It popped up off his crown.

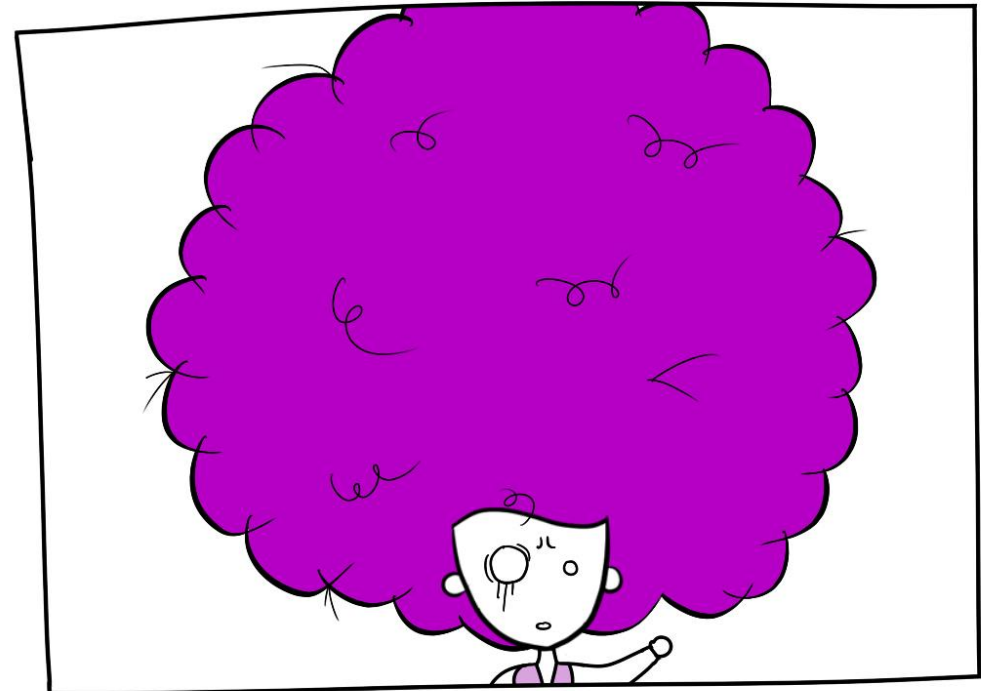

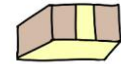

He took out a comb instead
And dragged it slowly across his head.
But as he pulled and dragged and ripped it through
He knew this was the wrong thing to do.
There was purple hair everywhere!

In the bathroom he wet his hair
And smoothed it down across his face,
But purple patches sprung up
In each and every place.

‘This is a very bad hair day!’ he said,
Looking in the mirror, shaking his head.
‘I just don’t know how to fix my hair.
It’s always bouncing everywhere.’

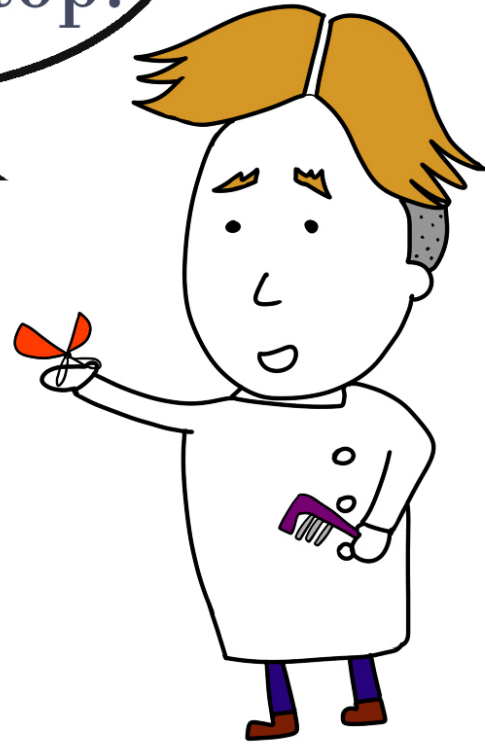

I think it’s time to go...
To the barber shop.

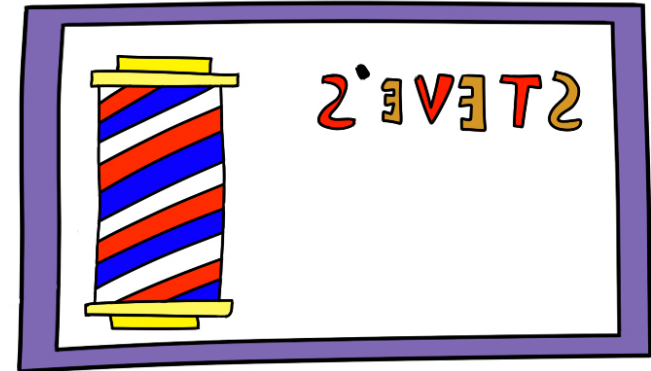

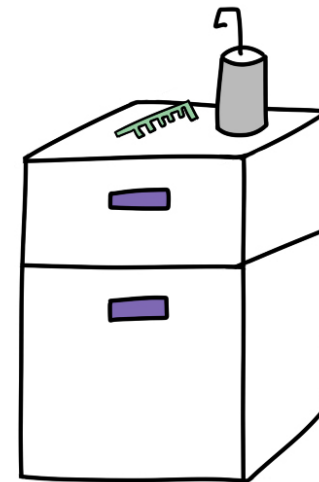

1 hour later in the barber shop...

I really think
I should stop.

The barber at the shop said,
'I really think I should stop.'
But the Ranterino said, 'No, go on!
I've really had enough
Of all this purple hair.
It's just so really tough!'

What kind of haircut is Ranty getting?

Funky cut?

Oh yeah!

Super-cool cut?

Beautiful!

Dance floor cut?

Out of this world!

Film star cut?

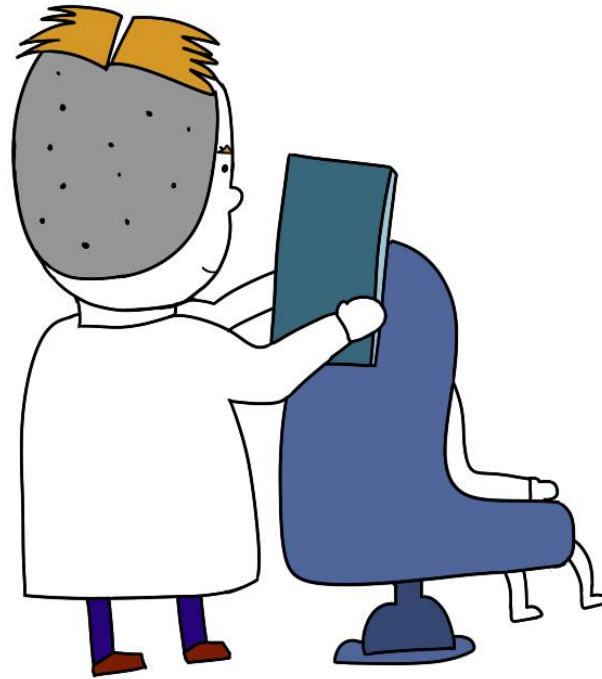

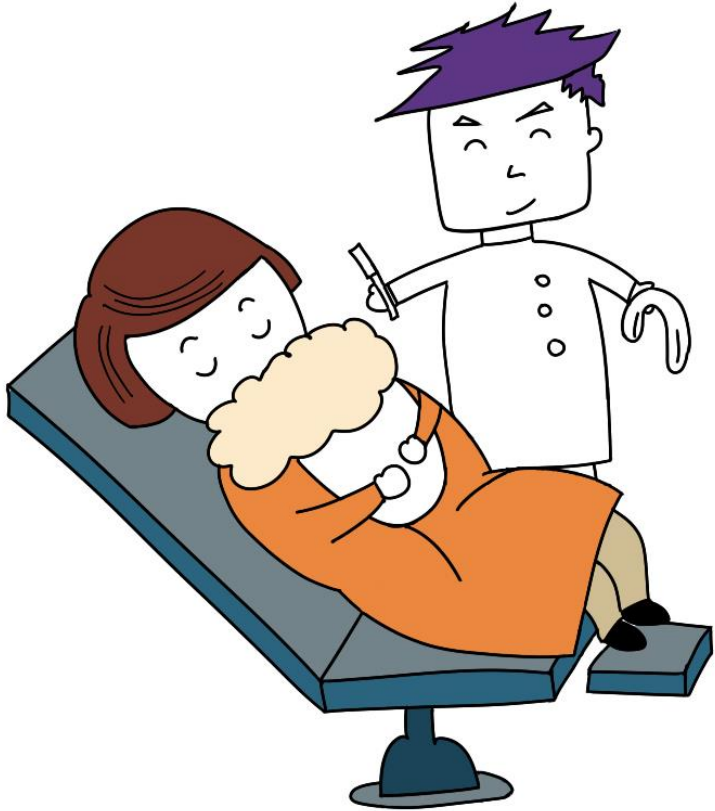

Aggggggggggggggggggggh!

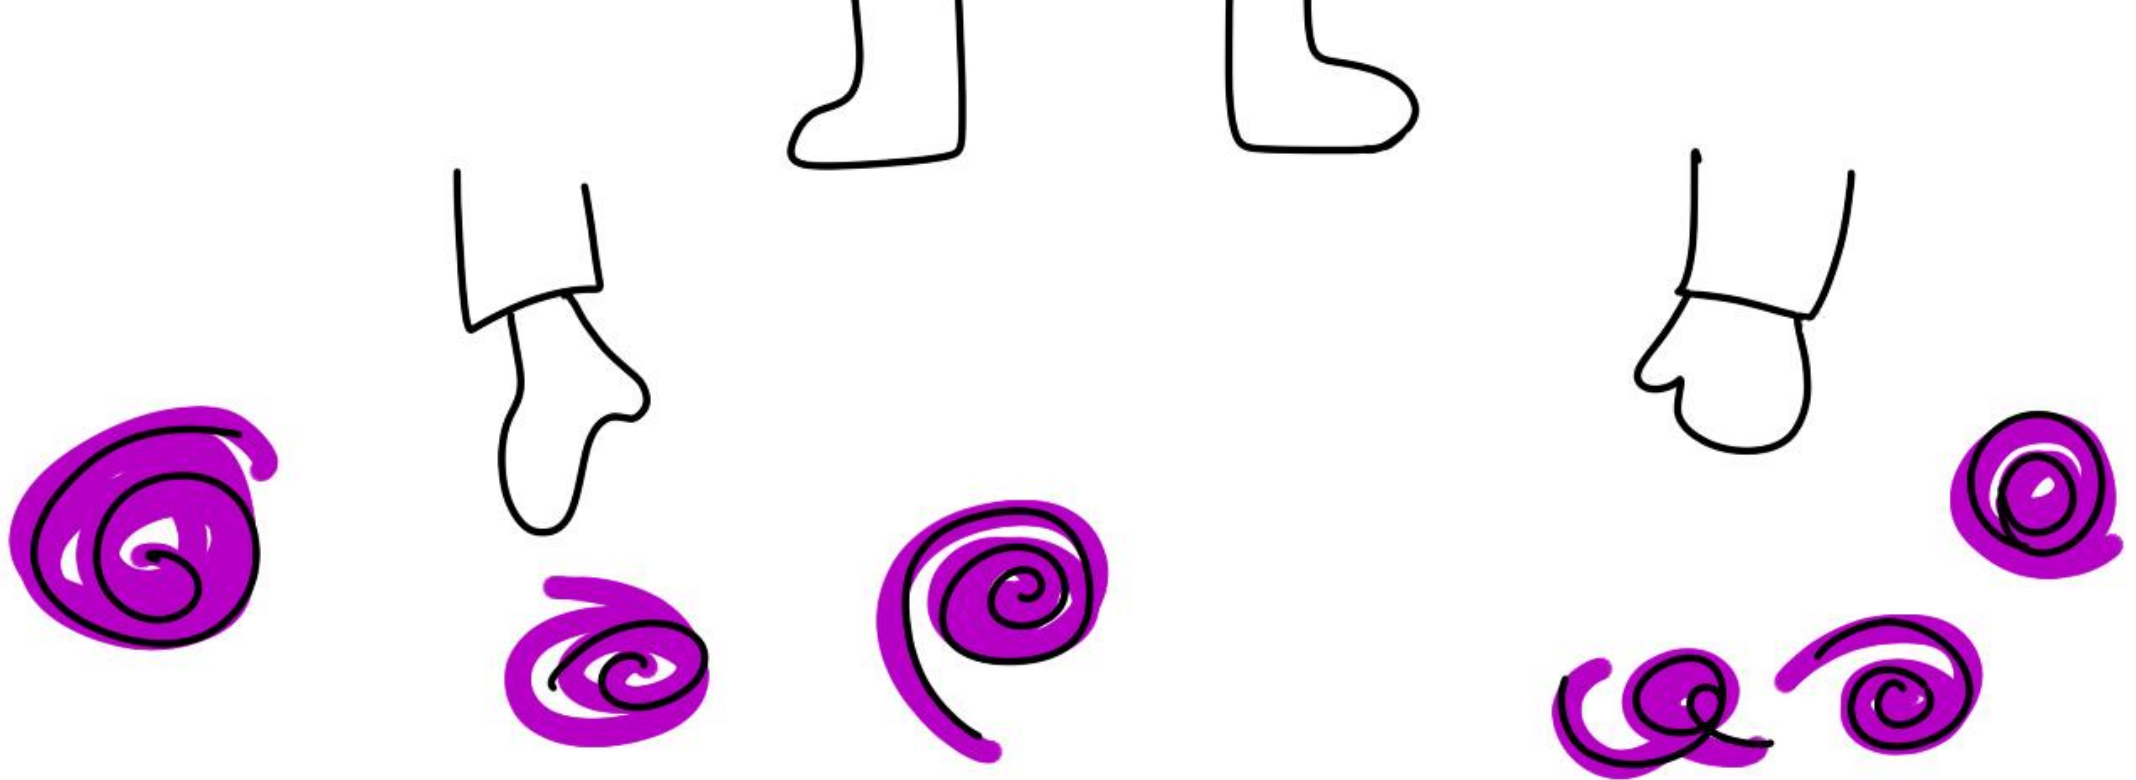

Oh dear!

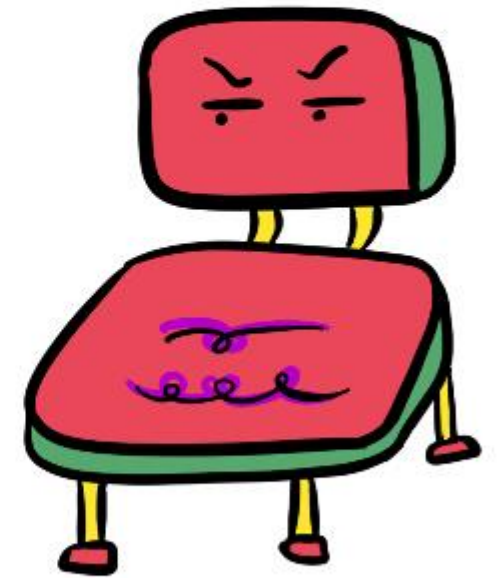

The barber finished cutting
And the Ranterino, sitting in his chair,
Looked into the mirror
And saw he had no hair.

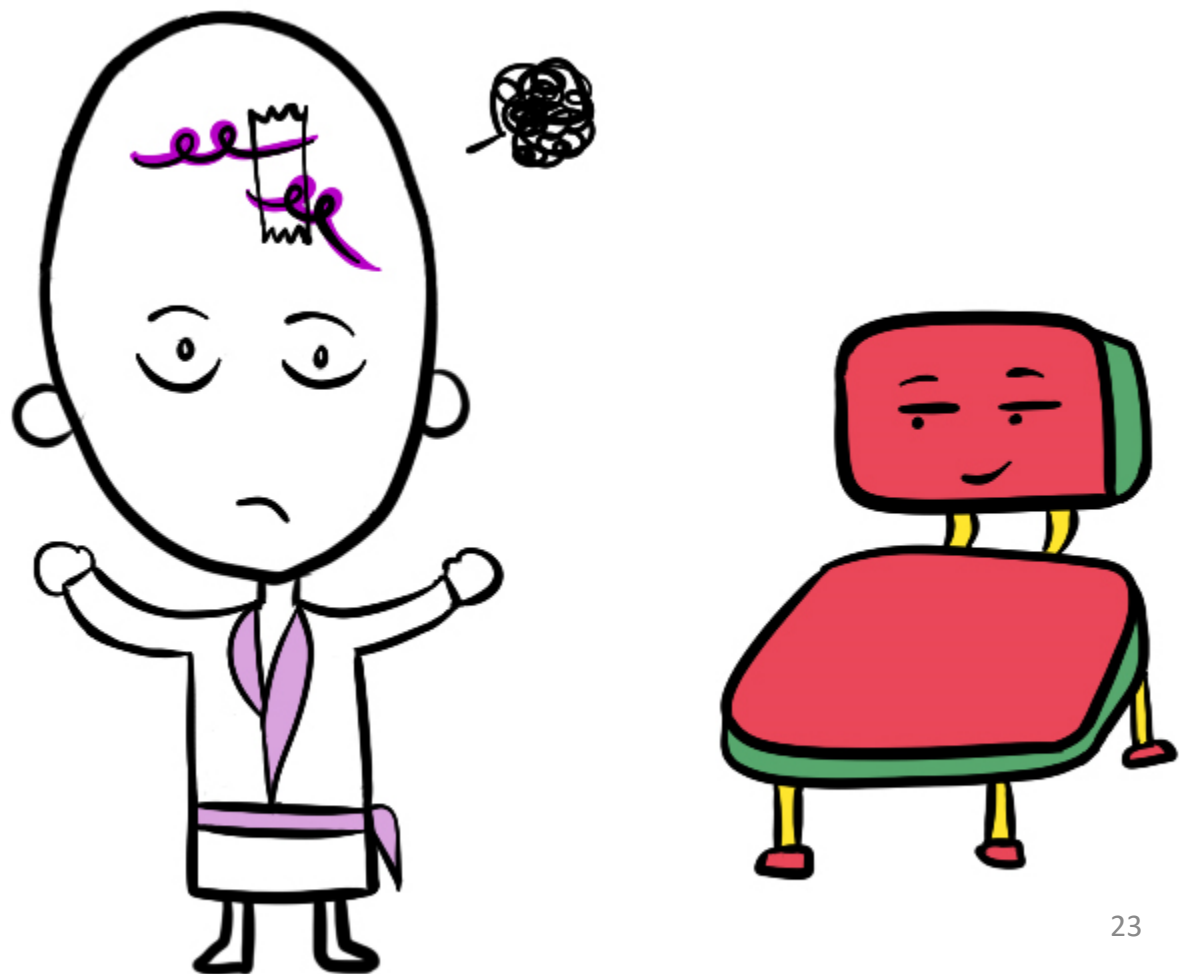

‘That is quite short,’ he said,
Tapping his fingers on his egg head.
He picked some hair up off the floor,
Paid and walked out of the door.

Back at home he took a purple hair
And laid it out across a chair.
He took one more purple hair
Then went and found some sticky tape
In a drawer nearby.
He looked at the two hairs
And gave a little sigh.

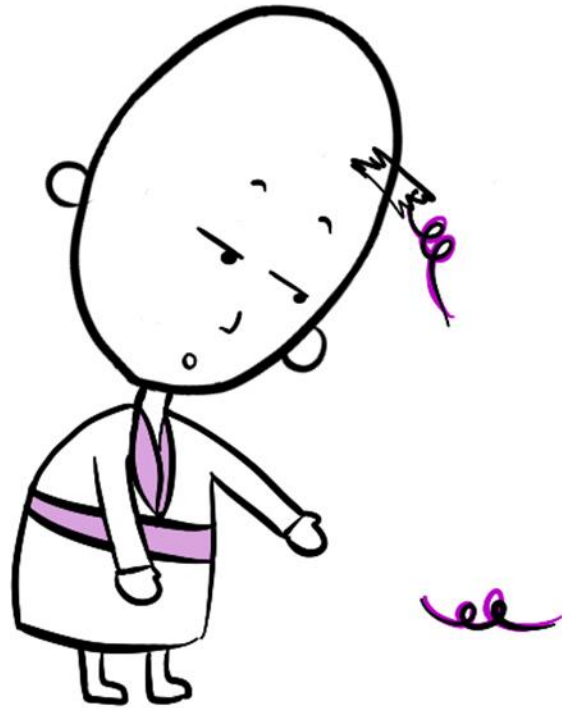

He cut some tape and took the hairs
And stuck them on his head.
Looking in the mirror and looking rather sad
The Ranterino combed his two hairs and said,
'That looks pretty bad!'

As he turned and walked through the door
The tape and two hairs fell on the floor.

‘Blah, blah, blah!’

The End
